

Tucson Organic Gardeners Spring Fair

Saturday, March 3rd • 10:30am - 3:30pm

St. Mark's Church • 3809 E 2nd Street

1 block west of Alvernon, 2 blocks south of Speedway

Admission is Free

Plant/Herb Sale - Food - Fun

- Multiple vendors offering a large selection of high quality organically grown vegetable and herb starts, ready for planting
- Organically produced seeds
- Native flowering plants, essential for supporting some beneficial insects
- Organic gardening amendments and supplies
- Compost bins and cranks
- Free organic gardening and compost information
- Trade show of local environmentally conscious businesses
- Networking opportunities with local environmental non-profits and NGOs

All proceeds benefit Tucson Organic Gardeners, a 501(c)3 non-profit organization.
Commercial vendors pay 15% of Fair sales to Tucson Organic Gardeners.
Non-profit vendors do not pay T.O.G. a fee to sell things at the Fair.
Questions call our infoline: 670-9158 Or e-mail us at info@TucsonOrganicGardeners.org